AERIAL DREAMING PRESENTS

THEIR VERY FIRST

IN HOUSE COMP

This competition aims to give students a sense of what participating in a real event feels like, especially for those who have been too nervous to join larger competitions such as Bend the Air.

We are focusing this competition more on creativity within the aerial arts. Each student will create their own routine to express their personal passion and ideas within their training level.

The competition will have Bec and Shae, as well as a guest to sit on the judging panel.
